Customer data (company): Company, name of contact person, email, telephone number, address information, bookings, messages, feedback and contacts

The museum receives this data in conjunction with a booking, a purchase or other contact.

6. Regular sources of data

The personal data has been obtained from the data subject themselves when booking and/or purchasing a service. The contact may have occurred via telephone, email or booking and purchasing services in the Holvi online store or on the museum website.

7. Personal data processors and disclosure of data

Personal data are processed by those museum employees whose roles include tasks related to the booking, sales and invoicing of public program services. The data shall not be disclosed to third parties. The data shall not be transferred outside the EU or EEA.

8. Erasure of data

Personal data may be erased from the register at the request of the data subject.

9. Principles of securing the register

The personal data are stored in a confidential manner. The information network and the hardware on which the register is stored are protected by a firewall and other necessary technical measures.

10. Personal data storage period

Personal data shall only be stored for as long as is necessary for the fulfillment of the purposes stated above in accordance with the legislation in force. Personal data shall be erased at the data subject's separate request by being manually erased from all systems in which the data are stored.

11. Rights of the data subject

The data subject has the right to request that the data controller erase their data, rectify erroneous or outdated data or restrict the processing of their personal data.

Amendments to the privacy statement

The Finnish Museum of Photography is constantly developing its operations and reserves the right to amend this privacy statement. Amendments may also be based on changes in legislation. It is recommended that you read the content of this privacy statement regularly.
